VOL. 24. CHICAGO, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1870.—WITH SUPPLEMENT. NO. 104.

WASHINGTON.

The Resignation of Secretary Cox.

The Coming Election in South Carolina.

Special Despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—The capital has been decently weaned to-day over the subject of Secretary Cox's resignation. The President was greatly annoyed in the morning by the publication of the letter, and it was not long before it came for the president. Neither the President nor Secretary had given any intimation of the matter to their friends, and the announcement was a complete surprise. Secretary Cox's letter was made to understand that his resignation was not to take effect until the 1st of November, which nearly covered the time of the meeting of Congress, and he was expected to remain at the White House. The President, however, declined to accept the resignation for publication, or to make known the reasons for the Secretary's resignation, but he has no grounds for the assertion made that other Cabinet officers have been consulted on the Commissioner's friends.

THE CONTEMPLATED REPEAL.

A motion for rehearing in the case of the tonnage reward was made in the Supreme Court of the United States, and overruled. Chief Justice Chase, in delivering the opinion, said it was unnecessary whether those rewards were among the duties of tonnage mentioned in the act of 1790. It was questionable whether they were a positive cost, carrying off any excess over the actual charges of the vessel, which was paid for towards before they enter on their ordinary duty. It was the duty of every citizen to favor as far as he could the execution of a law not modified nor by referring towards for it. The fact that every citizen pays a tax to defray the expenses of the government is no reason why he should not be required to contribute in a specific shape of the proportion that was assigned to him. Every one is bound to contribute to a large extent.

Base Ball

...ROCKFORD VS. CINCINNATI.

ROCKFORD, Ill., Oct. 14.—Owing to the great interest of the local fraternity in the game of base ball between Rockford and Cincinnati, the game of Dolsot. This time it was the amateur versus professional, and the result was most unfavorable, being nearly out of the question. With a terrific pace presented from the commencing, with a terrific pace presented from the start, the game was very handsomely played, the only errors made being those excusable, being presented by the Forest City, but the true, and were almost if not entirely unavoidable. Neither the batting, fielding or base running of the Cincinnati nine was very brilliant, but still it was seriously affected. The following are the details of the game:

THE NEWS IN CHICAGO.

Considerable ill-feeling was manifested in the course of this game, in Chicago, though the sentiment was not unanimous. Many of the old Forest City lovers, who have not forgotten the days of their youthful love, and who still cherish a fond regard for Dexter Park, were disposed to give the boys credit for the manly spirit for some time to come. Had the game been played on the Forest City grounds, the result of affair, the Chicago papers say, would have been very different, as it would have given the home club every chance of success with the 3rd Ward, Excelsior and Lincoln Park nines, which have been defeated by the Rockfords on the ground. The Chicago papers are unanimous in the opinion that the game was a most unfair one, and there are few who do not think that the Rockfords were guilty of a most foul trick. The Chicago City took the matter very much to heart, and it was only with the greatest difficulty that the friends of the Rockfords could prevent a row. The Chicago papers are unanimous in the opinion that Dolsot was the best player on the field, and that the only errors in the game were the result of his being hurried. The Rockfords this year are very fair players, but they are not to be compared to Wilson, Hallinan, Wolters, Hastings, Wright, Hatfield, Dolsot, Hall, Hatfield, Dolsot, Hall, Hatfield, Dolsot, Hall
